Gender Studies Certificate
23–28 Credits

Student Learning Outcomes

Students will:

- convey knowledge of historical perspectives on feminist thought and feminism as a movement;

- analyze connections among societal structures such as gender, race, class, age and sexuality that contribute to women's oppressions;

- analyze the role of language in producing and perpetuating cultural attitudes;

- apply their theoretical knowledge through an internship or experiential learning.